GEORGIAN BAR

Applying the science of today, Fenesta has revived window art that dates back to the 18th century: the Georgian era.

It's now simple to reproduce the stunning effect of a traditional Georgian or Victorian window in your home. In a single piece of glazing, Fenesta fastens astragal bars, creating the appearance of a classic casement window with multiple panes.

Like all our window and door products, the Fenesta Georgian Bar is packed with innovative features:

- It uses a clip fit system unlike traditional ones which use double side tapes for fitting
- Its fast and easy to install as compared to conventional system
- It doesn't falls off or weather because of clip system

Offerings:

Design: Georgian Bar can be offered in any design with maximum 12 grids.
